Global Context on the Role of Philanthropy

The COVID-19 pandemic transformed philanthropy at the national and international levels

Philanthropy played an important role in addressing humanitarian catastrophes—from hunger and armed conflicts to refugee crises

Social and economic inequality and universal human rights remained crucial philanthropic issues

Anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism regulations continued to hinder cross-border philanthropic flows amid increased humanitarian needs

Global Philanthropy Environment Index

- ❑ Provides comprehensive, open-access information about the philanthropic environment in economies at every level of income and growth
- ❑ Identifies incentives and barriers to philanthropy with contributions of more than 100 country-based experts around the world
- ❑ Offers a framework to better understand how philanthropy is likely to evolve and how it could be enabled to thrive across different geographic regions and cultures

2022 Global Philanthropy Environment Index

Overview of Key Findings:

- ❑ The overall global average score was 3.63 in 2018–2020
- ❑ 62% of the 91 economies included in the 2022 GPEI reported a favorable philanthropic environment (a score of 3.50 or above)
- ❑ Among the six factors, the ease of operating a philanthropic organization (3.97) scored the highest global average and the economic environment (3.46) scored the lowest across economies in 2018–2020

Changes in the Philanthropic Environment Between 2014–2017 and 2018–2020:

- ❑ The overall philanthropic environment has improved slightly since 2014–2017, comparing the 79 countries and economies included in both the 2018 and 2022 GPEI
- ❑ One-third of the 79 countries and economies experienced a decline in their political environment
- ❑ Regional improvements balanced with slight declines at the global level
